

Promo work continuing in Ireland

Promo work continuing in Ireland and so far the reponse has been excellent, especially to a recently aired TV show called Nationwide on the main Irish Chanel RTE1 . This featured Fionnuala in her home showing where she works and lives. It went out during prime time TV in Ireland.

Yesterday October 26th Fionnuala played live on the famed Pat Kenny radio show and was also interviewed by the guest host Myles Duncan. She performed with the amazing Croatian guitarist Drazen Derek and Irish accordian player Martin Tourish. They played "The Gartons's Mother's Lullaby" from her new CD.

This was a great slot which closed out the program. The track ``Our Wedding Day" from the new CD Songs From Before was also played during the same segment. (link to Show)<http://www.rte.ie/radio1/todaywithpatkenny/>

Next week Fionnuala will be heading to Singapore to perform a private concert with Rolf and members of the Secret Garden band and on her return will continue to appear on Irish radio.
